Dear Diary:

Here it is my Senior year! It seems only yesterday that I entered Monmouth High School for the first time. I've made myself a promise to keep a record of every event during this, my last, year.

Wish me luck

Mr. Crafton-

It was several days before I met Mr. Crafton, but I bumped into him as I was hurrying to class. His friendly spirit is well known around school. We can usually find him in his office to the left of the main office where he carries on his job as Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Dixon

On the first day of my senior year, Mr. Dixon, the principal, welcomed the little freshmen to school. His office is to the right of the main office, and from his place we hear the daily announcements. He always seems busy with his many duties.

We were all anxious at the first assembly to see the new teachers, as well as the ones from former years. As Mr. Dixon introduced them at the first assembly, we came to know Mrs. Lois Bowers, Mr. Lynn Calmore, Mrs. Alan Medendorp, Mr. John Nettleton, Mr. Robert Bowers and Miss Betty Dahlen. Later in the year Mr. Hugh Wisher replaced Miss Bradford when she left us to become Mrs. John Bailey.

In my three years at Monmouth, I have found that our school is very fortunate in having a fine group of instructors who are always willing to help whenever the occasion arises. I'm looking for many fine experiences as this, our last year, opens with the promise of being the best ever!

As I enter my last year of school, I realize that there are several fine teachers that I have come to respect and would have liked very much to have for instructors. But it seems that time flies, and I guess that will never happen.

Dean of Girls-

We girls always know we can go to Miss Della Thompson to ask her different things because she acts as Dean of Girls and a mighty fine one, too! She's always ready to lend a helping hand in solving our troubles. We all think she's swell, and I found out why when I had a little "chat session" with her. She also is one of our Girls' Club sponsors. If I need help, I always turn to our wonderful Dean of Girls.

Freshmen-

When I came to school today, I noticed 136 new faces, these being the new freshmen. Immediately they made themselves known by electing a capable group of officers and board of directors

School Board-

After a swell summer vacation it really didn't seem so bad to return to school when I noticed how nice the building looked. And I know the School Board has a hand in helping to keep the outside of the building looking so trim. They try to solve a lot of problems that pertain to our school. The members of the Board are: President, George Brumington; Secretary, William Hutchins; Mrs. Mabel McCoy, Mrs. Myrtle Rhea, Louis Gibb, Dr. James Marshall, Victor C. Engdahl. I think a great big vote of thanks from the Student Body should be given for the work they are doing.

Clipper - Gold Staff-

Here is the Gold staff. It has thirty-five industrious members, working under Earl Hunsaker. I was quite surprised to find two complete staffs in a school the size of Monmouth, so I asked Mr. Swanson, their sponsor, about it. He told me that Monmouth was one of the few schools of our size in the state that has two complete staffs to do the work. The Gold staff and the Maroon staff alternate in putting out the Clipper. One puts it out the first week, and the other the next.

I was certainly pleased with the Clippers, since they told me the latest news around school in sports, contests, classes, music, and honors received by individual students.

Annual-

Hold that pose! Don't move! Flash!! At first I didn't realize what Phyllis Alexander is the editor with Pat Johnson as assistant and the girls in charge of the pictures are Emma Tubbs, photo editor, and her assistant, Jane Peterson.

After watching all the hard work that goes into a year book, I was surely glad that Mr. Swanson had such a capable staff!

Editors-

Student Body Officers-

I heard "S. B. A." often around school and finally I discovered that S. B. A. stood for Student Body Association. The officers of the Student Body are President, Jerry Salaway; Vice-President, George Callen; Secretary, Pat Johnson, and Treasurer, Bill Doty. These people also serve as officers of the Student Council.

Student Council-

Then there was the Student Council meeting I attended. Jeepers! They really have a lot to do in planning dances, encouraging school spirit, and solving school problems. The members are, one person elected from each second period class and all class and club presidents. The S. B. A. President, Jerry Salaway, presides, and we really get a lot accomplished.

F. F. A.-

I was tramping around the Knox County Fair last August when I met the Monmouth Chapter of the F. F. A.

When they announced the winners of the fair I remember that Jim Mills won a prime rating with his Angus steers, Russell Stewart won fourth, fifth, and sixth places with his Hereford steers and Rex Hennenfent won seventh. Rex Hennenfent was the top prize winner of the local chapter as he took three first places with his registered Herefords. Dick Armstrong, Rex Hennenfent, and John Morford each showed a choice Hereford and Morford won the prize for his steer.

Albert Day and Larry Oaks were the winners of the Monmouth Chapter to show dogs. "June" won a first and two seconds with his registered Chester Whites and Larry placed second and tenth with his purebred Herefords.

In talking to the future members of the chapter at the Monmouth Chapter won the trophy for having the neatest exhibit. Mr. Stewart was a great deal of help in preparing for the show. He is the agriculture teacher and advisor of the chapter.

The total amount of money won by the members of the Monmouth Chapter was $100.00. All of the members showed their projects at the Roseville Fair and the calves showed them at the Prime Packer's Fair.

Jim Mills showed at the International Livestock Show in Chicago.

As I come to school each morning, I see 151 friendly sophomores. They started off the year by having a lot of players on Coach Ming's football team. I also saw a number of sophomores out for basketball, track and baseball. They also have many members in the band, orchestra, and chorus. I always noticed how well-represented the Sophs were on the honor roll.

Dance-

After the game, the Homecoming dance began. We were all excitedly waiting for the attendants to be revealed. About 11:00 P. M. the freshman attendant, Dona Christensen, and her escort, June Day, stepped through the door, onto the platform, and to the throne. Following her came the sophomore attendant, Joan Watt, escorted by Bill Rhea; junior attendant, Connie Irey, escorted by Jerry Rosenbalm; and the senior attendant, Jane Peterson, whose escort was Marshall Ward. The sextet sang "Girl of My Dreams" as the attendants came and "Sweetheart of Monmouth High" when Queen Pat Johnson entered. Jack Ameen represented the team in presenting Pat with a bouquet of yellow roses. Following the pretty coronation ceremony, which was under the direction of Emma Tubbs, Duane Manlove's band played soft strains for dancing. Valere Billman was in charge of the beautiful decorations.

One of the outstanding classes which made themselves known this year was that of the Juniors. This class gave a splendid play entitled, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay". Also I discovered that a great majority of our athletic teams were made up from this wonderful class. The girls are not to be forgotten though, for they had three of the four varsity cheering positions and three of the five twirling positions. As I write this they are preparing for a Junior-Senior Banquet which they hope will be one which will be remembered by all. I expect to see more of their athletes, twirlers, cheerleaders, and actors and hope they have a bigger and better next year.

Dutch Assembly-

Our first assembly in November, given by three Dutch students who are touring the U. S. A., proved to be simply delightful. Van der Vliet played the accordion and piano while Harry and Chita Marie Van Pelt sang and danced. When they called four Monmouth students up on the stage in wooden shoes and had them sing and dance, Betty Duncan became so embarrassed that she couldn't sing. I hope we have lots more assemblies like this one.

I remember the big turkey in the bulletin board around Thanksgiving time. It was to remind everyone of the Girls' Club Party, the "Turkey Hop", held November 22 in the M.H.S. gym. We danced to Bill Christensen's Orchestra, and ate cider and doughnuts. During the intermission Mrs. Ming's "kiddies" danced and presented acrobatic number Janet Oaks. ## Girls' Club

The Girls' Club of the City of Chicago, Inc., is a non-profit organization for the benefit of the girls of the city. It was organized in 1901 and has since that time been working for the betterment of the lives of the girls of the city. The club has a large membership and is active in many ways. It has a large fund of money and is able to do many good things for the girls of the city. The club is a very important part of the life of the city and is a source of much pride to all who are interested in the welfare of the girls of the city.

— Gumbo

We had several projects during the year, for instance, taking food to needy families at Christmas. Also, we had a pep committee which headed the pep assemblies

Mixed Chorus-

Today I went to Mixed Chorus. We are very happy to do I get a thrill out of singing
 "The Wondrous Star", and most of all, "Fireflies"! I still remember how much I like to sing for our Christmas Cantata, "The Wondrous Star". We have a 60

Christmas Program-

When I returned to school after lunch on December 20 I went to the auditorium for the annual Christmas program sponsored by the Girl's Club. The Mixed chorus under the direction of Mr. Keller presented a cantata, "The Shepherd's Christmas," which was followed by a play, "And Lo the Star", presented by Mrs. Charney's speech classes. This was the first time the school heard the chorus, and we were all proud of their accomplishment. The characters in the play displayed much talent, and we all hope to see them again.

Mr. Dixon wished us all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and dismissed school until January 3, 1951.

Snowball-

spent an enchanting evening at the Snowball on December 31. With the soft music of Sandi Sorenson and the beautiful decorations, made by Connie Olson, we enjoyed the happy party to a great success.

The outstanding decorations included a large silver snowball in the center of the dance floor, decorated with bright red bows and white streamers. The decorations were a perfect winter scene. The decorations included a large silver snowball, decorated with bright red bows and white streamers.

Hi-Y -

One week I had the honor of attending the weekly meeting of the Hi-Y. They meet every Wednesday for lunch and follow with a speaker. The speaker is usually a local business man, teacher, or minister.

The Hi-Y usually sponsors a dance or party every year. It is a very fine organization. The officers this year are Duane Manlove, president; Ranney, vice-president; Jeff Nicholas, secretary; and Jay Dooley, treasurer.

Their motto is

Girls' Basketball-

Ooh! What an exciting tournament being played by the girls in class to complete the basketball season. From each class period forwards and guards were chosen to compose an all star team to represent the gymnasium. The team to finally come out on top was fourth period composed of Captain Halley Kelley and other forwards, Florence Gibson, Mary Ann Ray, Beverly Morris, Barbara L. Sharon Clark, and Mary Lou Kenan. The guards are Carol Isaacson, Yarrington, Marjorie Brooks, Joyce Fusch, Shirley Ray, Darlene Brown and Shirley Cook. Wow! What enthusiasm!

Boys' Intra-Mural -

Also there was a boys intra-mural tournament held at the same time as the girls' tournament. The winning team was that of Jack Ameen. Several of the team members were not present when this picture was taken.

Another bright spot in the future is the play of the Snappers. Having a fine record of 15 won and 6 lost, Coach Nettleton's eagers showed that future M H S teams will be even tougher as they gain experience.

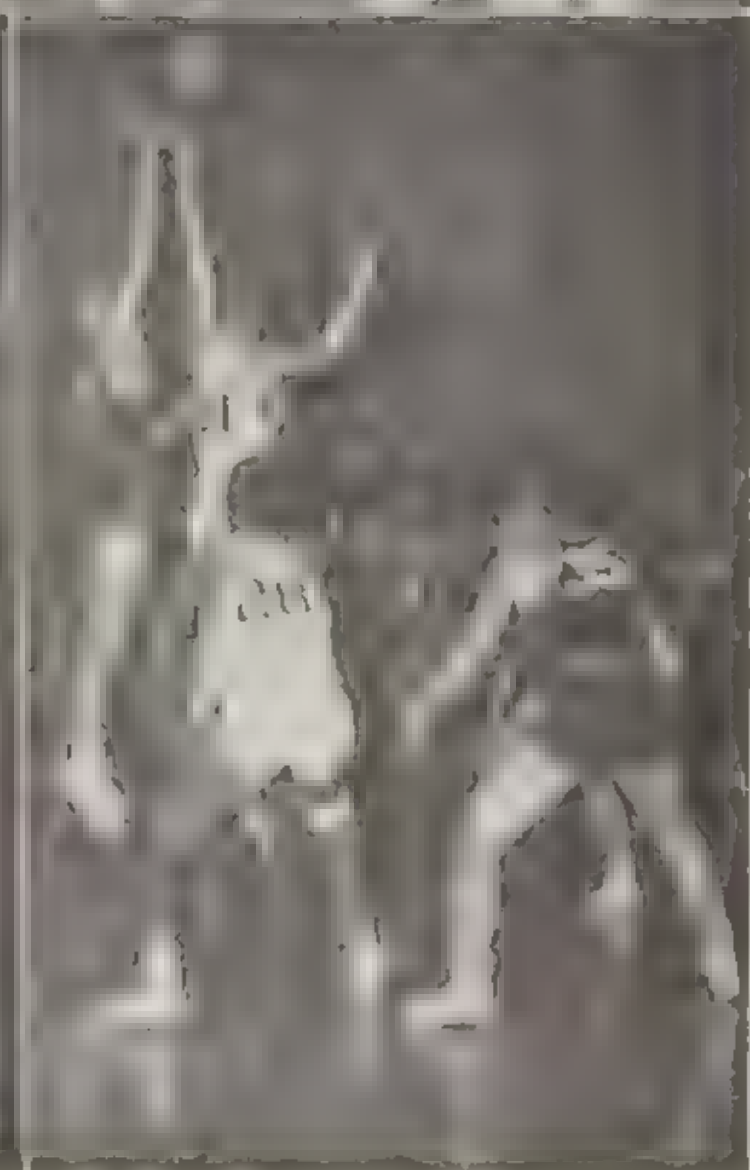

The Snappers had a number of freshmen as the varsity had mostly juniors and sophomores. Watch them the next few years and you will see some good basketball.

G. A. A.-

Often as I arrive at school on Mondays, I hear a lot of noise coming from the gym. Upon investigation I find a number of good looking young women playing basketball. I discovered that during the year they also play volley ball, soccer and baseball and go to play days in other towns. Each year two girls are sent to G.A.A. camp.

This year G.A.A. has four capable leaders: president, Eleanor Linman; vice-president, Pauline Yarrington; secretary, Halley Kelley; and treasurer, Marjorie Johnson.

D. A. R. Award-

Each year the Daughters of the American Revolution give a citizenship award to a senior girl chosen on the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

This year's winner from M. H. S. was Jane Peterson and on the twenty-second of February, she and her mother attended a luncheon given by the D. A. R. Here the pins and certificates were presented to Jane and the three other girls from surrounding towns. A fine program was enjoyed also.

At the state convention, all of the winners' names were put in a hat, and the girl whose name was drawn received a $100 fund.

Sombbrero Club-

My Friday and Saturday night hangout all through high school has been the El Sombbrero Club.

Under the officers, President, Jay Dooley; Vice-President, Keith Howver; Secretary, Connie Irey; and Treasurer, Ed Craig; a varied program was carried on. Assisting them were the members of the board of directors and the sponsors, Mrs. Mearl Curry first semester and Mr. and Mrs. Don Steiner second semester.

Just recently the Y. M. C. A. Women's Board cooperated with us in cleaning and renovating the rooms. Among the parties that I remember are the Freshman Dance at the beginning of the year, the Christmas dance, and a mid-winter dance.

Not long ago we had a wonderful membership drive to raise funds for future activities and we are now planning a Chili supper and a skating party as our last fund-raising activities.

Quiz and Scroll-

A group of students, including the Quiz and Scroll club and their initiates. They found them at the Gift Nook for their annual breakfast. Following this, initiation ceremonies were conducted by Jane Peterson, president, John Roanne, and June Day. Flowers were presented at the breakfast to members and faculty present. Mr. Lester Munneke, Mr. Joseph Dixon, Mr. Charles [unclear], and Dr. [unclear] were also present. A group of students, including the Quiz and Scroll club, were the members of the group.

A group of students, including the Quiz and Scroll club, were presented to the new members who were Pat Johnson, Jay Dooley, Earl Hunsaker, Duane Manlove, Howard Chapman, Dean Masterson, Emma Tubbs, Patti Carlson, Phyllis Alexander, Wilma Williams, and Eleanor McClelland.

Easter Services-

One of the inspiring things at Easter time that I remember at M.H.S. is the very beautiful services held half an hour out of each morning class on March 20 in the auditorium. The decorations fitted the season very well. The sermons were by Rev. Val. Rev. Courtney and Rev. Kern. Music fitting the Easter season was presented by the two boys sextettes, the mixed ensemble, Barbara Killev, Gene Doty, and Dorothy Boughton.

This time of meditation helped to get us in the mood of the real meaning of Easter.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER AWARDS

Every year each football player has a goal to strive for and that is to be named the most valuable player. On Awards Day these honors were given to George Gillen, senior, who was given the Oscar for being the most valuable lineman. Wayne "Bunky" Scott, junior, was awarded an Oscar for the most valuable backfield man. I think we should give these fellas a great big "Congratulations" for their hard work for the M.H.S. football team.

HALL OF FAME

Speaking of awards, the lucky fellows who have made Hall of Fame in sports through their whole high school career make Hall of Fame. This year only one boy met these requirements and that was Sydney Ross. "Syd" has been very outstanding in every sport and he should feel very proud to be awarded this honor.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA LETTER WINNERS

Another thing that happened Awards Day was the receiving of band and orchestra letters. To receive a letter we had to have at least eight semesters of band or orchestra work.

Those receiving letters this year were Bill Rhea, Phyllis Alexander, Laveine Birditt, Mary Frances Hodgson, Sydney Ross, Mary Ann Saville, Earl Hunsaker, Eleanor Linman, Bob Peters, Jack Gillette, John Romme, Margorie Johnson, Connie Olson, Winnie Crosier, Janet Fryrear, and Duane Manlove.

Orchestra-

I was certainly tickled when the orchestra won a first in the district music contest in April at Clinton. The orchestra under the direction of Mr. Keller practiced every Monday and Wednesday activity periods.

The orchestra also participated in the contest on February 20th. They've been won and they come back April 28th with the State Champions.

Band-

The school band is a very important part of the school life. It is a group of students who play musical instruments and sing. They are trained by a band leader and perform at various school events.

The band is a very important part of the school life. It is a group of students who play musical instruments and sing. They are trained by a band leader and perform at various school events.

Not only does the band provide a great outlet for the students' musical talents, but it also helps to build their self-esteem and teamwork. They are a very important part of the school community and their performances are always a highlight of the school year.

"M" Club-

Today I was talking to "Bunky" Scott. He is president of the "M" Club. Syd Ross is vice-president, Jerry Rosenbalm, secretary, and Jay Dooley is treasurer.

The club is for boys who have earned at least 1 varsity letter. They have a number of jobs. It is a very active organization. It sure is a fine club. I wish I could belong.

F. H. A.

One of my most useful activities is the F.H.A. This is an organization for the promotion of home economics under the direction of Mrs. Courtney and Mrs. Bowers. The meetings are twice a month during the activity period. The officers are: president, Connie Olson; vice-president, Rocelia Danewood; secretary, Eunice Haase; treasurer, Pat Maxey. The historian is Patti Carlson and the program chairman is Carolyn Beaty. We have worth-while meetings that are interesting to all the girls. At the F.H.A. rally in Galesburg, we won 1st with our skit, and we were really thrilled.

S. B. A. Election-

In one of the best conducted campaigns recent years the school elected its student body officers. As I was walking down one of the halls I noticed the walls were plastered with campaign signs and posters of the two parties Equality and Active, were promoting their candidates.

Our election had a bang-up start with an assembly at the beginning of the week, when the two parties gave their platforms. Richard Howver gave the Active Party Platform, while Howard (Howdy) Chapman gave the Equality Platform.

The dark horses were Anne Quinby for secretary and Raymond Moore for vice-president. Of course, we had to have a primary the next day. Bob Meling for vice-president and Anne Quinby for secretary were eliminated.

Finally the big election and next year's officers were chosen between Keith Howver and Raymond Moore for president, and Joan Watt for secretary, and Marlin Lowe and Bobbie Thompson for treasurer. The winners that will lead us next year were Keith Howver, president; Bob Fusch, for veep; Betty Duncan secretary; and Marlin Lowe, treasurer.

At the election I got in line to watch the results. Another unusual thing was that all four elected were on the Active Party ticket.

Miss Bradford Leaves-

I was extremely surprised when Miss Faune Bradford gave up her career to become the wife of Mr. John W. Bailey. Many generations of students, including us, have had her as a social science teacher, and we will all miss her very interesting talks of her travels that she has presented to us in her twenty eight years of teaching at M.H.S.

From now on she will reside at Elmwood Farms at Coal Valley, Illinois.

Having noticed the pretty flower garden on the east side of the school, I inquired about it and found out that it was kept by the F. T. A. This club is made up of about nine students who plan to be teachers. They have luncheon every other Tuesday in Mr. Wisher's room. Miss Bradford was their advisor before she resigned. Mr. Wisher took over her position when he came. Another project was operating the check room at the sectional speech contest here. Their officers are president, Loren Sallee; vice-president, Earl Hunsaker; secretary, Eloise Chewing and treasurer, Gwendolyn Young.

Junior Senior Banquet-

I just came across these pictures of last year's Junior-Senior banquet. That was really an evening to remember. It was held on Thursday, May 4, 1950, at the Elks' Club.

While the three-course dinner was being served, we listened to recorded music. I remember that after the meal, Jeff Nicholas, as president of the junior, gave a greeting to which the senior class president made a response.

We were all quite amazed at the program of magic feats presented by a guest artist. Then I stayed for the social hour which included dancing and at last went home to dream of the memorable evening.

Whiteside Plantation
New Orleans 6, Louisiana
February 18, 1970

Dear Caroline:

Oh, what a glorious evening I've just had, Caroline. A trip into the city to attend the Mardi Gras Grand Ball! I want to tell you all about it.

My father's chauffeur, Dick Blevins, who just retired from hot-rod racing, gave me an extraordinary ride as we hurtled through the streets. Suddenly we hit a wild running pig and cut it loose right at the street. A renowned painting agricultural engineer by the name of Dr. Albert D. Brown was sitting up and a minor argument ensued. It took two policemen, Ken Johnson and Mr. R. Schmitt, to settle them down. Ten minutes and two tickets later we were on our way.

At the ball we saw our favorite, Miss Betty Gregory, national ticket collector, and I tried to see her. As we were going to see "The Boss" Ward was being sworn by Georgios, the Greek. A golden Youngquist famous wrestler. He had been giving soap box speeches about his party. How exciting!

What an experience! I had been spoiled by the Parisian artists. A new collection of great murals depicting war scenes by the Union Artists Corporation. Strangely the murals all had girls with long, fluffy, blond hair. Nevertheless, it was beautiful. At one end of the ball was a magnificent display mounted by the Union Engineering Company. At the other end a man was giving a demonstration on the different art of post extermination. And there was a touch to the horror of the new times. Come Harvey, who played the part of a rabbit in a famous movie.

Then a tantalizing odor filled the room. I looked toward the food section and noticed the most outstanding food culturist, Rita Vancil, and her assistant, Sally Cook, presiding over southern fried chicken and cornpone fairly drizzling with molasses.

I wonder if Dad knew what he was letting me come to tonight? Gosh!

Conroy's first impetuous proposal was rung out the glad tidings to the winners of the literary contest. It was a triumph for the great editor who went to Maxine Lear. The contest for the best original fiction was won by the ladies, Edna St. Vincent Potter and Betty Caruso, to whom the Pulitzer Prize was awarded as well as a cash prize. So, the prize went to Edna Potter, who was a young girl, and a poet, and a novelist, and a short story writer. I thought Shirley Nunn was the best, but she was not. The contest was a great success, and the former Carolyn Brady was the winner of the prize. The crowning of the king and queen was to come later.

I saw so many famous people, Earl Hunsaker, author of "After the Brawl Was Over,"

Mary Leach was dancing. Don Van Lint, big time gambler, was making parties with the wealthy manager Dick Bowman who had restaged the Ziegfield Follies.

...st... .. happened. Hank Leet... and Norma Judy were performing ... .. Anyway, Norma started giggling ... .. who blushed very strongly.

I glanced toward the TV screen and saw Professor of Mathematics, Loren Sallee, discussing with ... .. the new theory of evolution in bookkeeping being presented by Ed Craig.

Out on the dance floor, Marjorie Johnson, Barbara Killey, and Leona Gossett put on an exhibition of modern dancing that couldn't be beat. I've heard their instructor was Jim Mills, whose contestants always won first prize.

... .. She ... .. in a discussion of Emma's latest beauty treatment.

... .. what had the delicate and get hydraulic drive invented by Peg Burns.

Caroline, I saw an Indian Prince! His name was ... Ross, who had in his harlem a following of many younger girls. Oh, he was so masculine.

... .. Mary Frances Hodgson and her assistant Delores Hoy were interviewing Eleanor Luman who had been working for several years in a hospital for the insane.

... .. She missed only once. Joanne Miller, fashion academy winner of 1969 looked so cute with that pancake on her upsweep hairdo.

Mary Ann Saville was leaning happily over the announcement of her getting the star billing on the "My Friend Irma Show".

Receiving her usual fate, Wilma Williams was next to the last in arriving at the ball. It had always been so. Of course, the honor of being last was reserved for Jack Weegar.

Just before the main event, Lavene Birditt talked on the advantage of having friends in neighboring cities.

The turning on of the spotlights and the changing of the tone of the music drew attention to the beautiful gold and silver throne. Before the procession started, credit was given to "Sparkles" Peters, donor of the crowns, Phyllis Alexander, creator of the queen's gown and Bonnie Clayton, creator of the king's robe.

Leading the group with lighted candles were the queen's attendant, Betty Smith, Elizabeth Barrett Dooley and Patricia Ann Johnson. They were met on the throne by the governess of the ball, Mearl Curry, and the Bishop of America, Reverend John Hanley, who had the honor of crowning them.

This climaxed the wonderful evening. Then as now, I grew so sleepy I had to leave. Write soon.
